PRIMATE OF IRELAND HELD UP Belfast, June 17.—Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, and his coadjutor, Archbishop O'Donnell, again were held up by members of the Ulster constabulary last night, when their automobile was stopped near Newry by a patrol of "B" specials.

The constables at first demanded the chauffeur's license, which he produced, at the same time informing them of the identity of his passengers. The leader of the constables then ordered the prelates to alight and submit to search, to which they consented, although again giving their names.

A number of bags in the car were searched and documents carried by the prelates were scrutinized, after which the party was allowed to proceed.

Sorrowing Friends Pay Final Tribute to Mrs. F. M. Bruce

The funeral of Mrs. Frank M.
Bruce, who died at the home of her father, J. H. Yelverton, on Oak street Friday, took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from the residence, while hundreds of sorrowing friends, many of whom could not restrain tears of grief, paid final tribute to their much-loved friend and school-mate.

A profusion of flowers, all the more expressive because they were from home gardens, were brought by loving hands and the bier was banked high with them when a special choir of four voices, Mrs. Irene Leeks Haile, soprano; Mrs. S. L. Zetrouer, contralto; H. R. Knight, tenor, and W. P. Merriam, bass, initiated the service by singing "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," with Mrs. E. L. Mann at the piano, and following the impressive service conducted by Rev.
J. F. Saville, pastor of the First Baptist church, the choir sang "Sometimes You Will Understand."

The remains were then borne to the grave, the pallbearers being Messrs. Cromwell Anderson, Lewington Barstow, Robert L. Earnest, Jr., Roy Cowan, Carl Alderman and Fred Leeks. At the grave Dr. Saville conducted the brief burial service, after which Mrs. Zetrouer and Mrs. Haile sang a duet, "Refuge," and the last sad words were spoken.

TAMPA MAN ARRESTED ON A CHARGE OF FORGERY
Tampa, June 17.—Lawrence B.
Hill, former bookkeeper of a ship supply concern here, was at liberty today on $2,500 bond. He was arrested yesterday by postal inspectors on a charge of forging money orders.
He is accused of taking money order blanks from the firm, forging them and collecting them at local banks.

BONDING ELECTION FOR ROADS AGREED ON

which runs well up into the thousands of dollars each year without any apparent benefit.

The committee is impressed by the experiences of others that the taxpayers pay more taxes on poor roads than they do on good ones, and feel sure that when the present campaign is fully explained that there will be no trouble in carrying the issue. Following is the way the plan appor-tions the building:

Nine Feet Wide, Brick.

Road—	Miles.	Cost.
Interlachen	14	$161,000
Bostwick	10	115,000
Dunn's Creek	5	57,500
Federal Point	1	11,500
Total	30	$345,000

Sixteen Feet Wide, Gravel.

Road—	Miles.	Cost.
Hawthorne	11	$44,000
Yelvington	4	5,000
Peniel	4½	18,000
Total	19½	$67,000

Sixteen Feet Wide, Shell.

Flagler County road, 4 miles; cost $10,000.

Bridges on the Hawthorne road to cost $25,000; bridges on the Bostwick road to cost $15,000; bridges on the Dunn's Creek road to cost $2,500, and bridges on the Flagler county, Yelvington and Peniel roads, $1,500, making a grand total of $466,000.

The Screen

"QUEEN OF SHEBA."

The grandeur and immensity of the scale on which "Queen of Sheba," which will be at the Grand Monday and Tuesday, was produced, under the direction of J. Gordon Edwards, is shown in those scenes of the picture taken on the desert. These involve the trip of Sheba across the Arabian desert on her first visit to the great wise man of the East, King Solomon; later the crossing of Sheba and her army going to the aid of Solomon, besieged by Adonijah in the Tower of David; and finally the Queen and her little son returning to her kingdom after the child's visit to Solomon and his great adventures at the court of the king.

Like the moving of an army, like the moving of a great caravan over the desert, was the preparation for the making of these scenes. The sand dunes on which they were filmed are at Oxnard, 65 miles from the William Fox West Coast studios. To this point there had to be transported 600 persons, 300 horses, 14 camels, 31 chariots, some 150 tents including Arabian tents, wardrobe and dressing room tents and sleeping tents for about 300 persons. Besides these were two "chuck" wagons, accompanied by a chef and a staff of assistants; forty wardrobe boxes besides special wardrobe for principals; four water wagons; and eighteen motor trucks for the transportation of these things from the train over the five miles to location. Like a little city was this complete equipment when spread and set in action for the mak-

For the accommodation of this moving army there were chartered two trains to carry the people and the equipment between Los Angeles and Oxnard—one train of twelve cars for the freight and animals, and a second train of six cars to carry the actors.
Beside this, Mr. Edwards and his staff, the principals, and the cameramen went by automobile over the mountain roads.

Engineering and attorneys, advertising $9,000, or total with all costs estimated, $475,000.

Great Snobocracy Club Elects Eight New Snobs to Fold

(By Associated Press)

London, June 17.—The Royal Yacht Squadron, styled the most exclusive club in the world, has just elected eight members, a majority of whom are peers.

To achieve membership in the Royal Yacht Squadron is equivalent to obtaining a certificate of social position far more widely recognized than a patent of nobility. Wealth alone, as some very rich men have discovered, will not suffice to secure admission to what some detractors have termed the last stronghold of "snobocracy" in England.

Trademen, however, philanthropic or patriotic are barred. Sir Thomas Lipton has issued several challenges for the America's cup, and no man in the country has done anything like as much to encourage yacht building and designing as he has. But because he is a tradesman, it is said, Yacht Squadron.

BELIEVE CONDUCTOR'S ASSAILANTS NOW IN JAIL

Richmond, Va., June 17.—With the arrest of James Washington and Jas.
Brown, negroes, at Jetersville, Va., on June 15 as they alighted from a train from Richmond, the police now have nine suspects in the local jail in connection with the murder last Sunday of Conductor L. H. Burleson. Burleson was stabbed to death in South Richmond by a band of negroes after he had ejected a disorderly negro from his trolley. The nine suspects will be given a hearing in police court June 22.

BURNS HOME AND SUICIDES

Tampa, June 17.—After a dispute with his family Helson Hann, of Dover, near here, burned down his house and killed himself yesterday.

he has never been elected a member of the Royal Yacht Squadron. King Edward, though a yachtsman himself and the most popular of monarchs, discovered that even his influence was not strong enough to procure the election of a friend in the Royal Yacht Squadron.
